BANDITS OPERATING In Northern Michigan are taking a desperate chance for it has been clearly demonstrated in the case of the Manicouba bank robbers this week that the reputation of the Northern people for shooting to kill has been well established.

There is no sentiment among our armed bandits and neither is there any sentiment here in the north for that class of citizenry. Hardly had the robbers left the bank building before the chase was on and the pursuers made it hot for them almost every minute until the capture of the last one at Cadillac yesterday. Shots were fired from each side and there was every reason for any timid pursuer to jump the job, but they stuck right onto the job until the last man was taken.

The two Elliott brothers who were captured in the woods Tuesday were knocked down several times by gunshots and it is reported that had the State police intervened, the men would probably have been shot to death. It was needless punishment that these men received but a good sample of what may be expected by bandits operating in these parts. Men know how to shoot, they know the country and have the endurance and courage to carry a fight to a finish.

Thursdays of the bandits were so dangerous that it is a great wonder that the victims were not completely riddled by bullets. And they would have deserved it too.

THORKILD BOESON PASSES SUDDENLY

Thorkild Boeson, one of Grayling's most estimable citizens and a resident of the community for a long number of years passed away suddenly at his home Wednesday morning.

Mr. Boeson seemed to be in the best of health and his death came as a severe shock to his family and large circle of friends. During Tuesday night he complained of a pain in his chest which seemed to leave him later in the night. However he awoke again about 5:00 o'clock and again complained of the pain and Mrs. Boeson suggested sending for a physician. Mr. Boeson consented and the latter went to the bathroom and while bathing his hands and face collapsed. The physician said death was due to heart trouble.

The funeral of Mr. Boeson will be held Saturday afternoon, with services at the home at 2:00 o'clock and at the Danish Lutheran church at 3:00 o'clock.

Mexico City—Allotment of farms to Mexican peasants is provided in a decree signed by President Rubio Ortiz. None of the land so distributed has been expropriated from large landholders due to evidence that large productive holdings were broken up in the past while millions of acres of good land lay idle.

It is the aim of the President to increase employment by colonizing idle lands and at the same time to improve the insufficient farm production of the country.

Protect Yourself

WHEN you buy paint, you should get protection. The amount of protection you get, of course, depends upon the quality of the paint you buy.

Because Valdura Asphalt Paint contains only the very highest grade materials—because the base is genuine 99.5% pure Gilsonite Asphalt (nature's own preservative)—and because of the extreme care taken in its manufacture, you get the utmost in paint when you buy Valdura—therefore, real protection!

BASS SEASON OPENS JUNE 25TH

With the trout season now well under way, Michigan's bass fishermen are preparing for the opening of the open-air meetings. Many were seated in cars while others were seated on the ground.

The Epworth League service was in charge of C. N. Hill who will be leaving Grayling soon for Detroit. Rev. Greenwood in behalf of the League presented Mr. Hill with a set of military music, as a token of their appreciation for the many times he has assisted in the Epworth League. He was very active and was always cheerful and willing when asked to assist with the meetings.

Mr. Hill chose for his topic "The Value of Friendships" which the League meeting closed with Mr. Hill leading the singing of the song "Taps."

Those remaining for the church service heard an inspiring message from Dr. D. H. Glass, District Superintendent. Mrs. Glass was also among those present.

Several Roscommon people motored to Grayling and in all about fifty attended the service.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

London Naval Treaty Will Be Dealt With by Senate in Special Session.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

RATIFICATION of the London naval treaty will be accomplished by the senate in a special session, to be called by President Hoover immediately after the adjournment of congress about June 15. This was the plan decided upon by majority leaders of the senate and house with the approval of the President. It was considered best for congress to go ahead with the business before it, complete that and adjourn without taking up the treaty. The house leaders said they were ready to set a date for ending the session as soon as the senate was prepared for such a step.

Opposition to hasty action on the treaty by opponents of the pact, and a desire on the part of members of the house to get through and go home were two of the major reasons for the decision reached. President Hoover's announcement that he intended to call a special session, if necessary, to insure early action on the treaty was a principal factor.

Senators Johnson of California and Hale of Maine, leaders of the opposition, were especially vehement in their objections to what they called an attempt to railroad the pact through the senate by administration senators. Under the program adopted, the tariff, rivers and harbors, omnibus and veterans bills will be acted on in the senate before congress adjourns.

More members of the navy general board and other high officers of the navy appeared before the senate committee on foreign relations and naval affairs to tell why they considered the London treaty dangerous to the United States. Much of their testimony was to the effect that it would make it impossible for the navy to protect this country's trade routes; there also was further criticism of the reduction in the number of large cruisers for America and of the increased ratio given Japan.

DEBATE on the conference report on the tariff bill was just getting under way in the senate when some one raised a point of order which was sustained by Vice President Curtis and under which the measure was sent back to conference. Consequently final action on the bill was delayed for at least one week.

The point of order related to a clause in the flexible provision permitting the tariff commission to make effective changes in duties if the President failed either to approve or disapprove a recommendation for an increase or decrease within 60 days.

Legislative leaders were concerned over the fact that several additional points of order may be made relating to rate items. If these are sustained, further delays are in prospect.

SENATE expenditures committee found that Senator Grundy of Pennsylvania spent $201,000 out of his own pocket in his losing campaign for re-nomination and that the total cost of that campaign was $332,076. Secretary of Labor Davis who defeated Grundy told the committee that he expended and pledged out of his own funds $10,541.45. He said he also handled about $10,000 in contributions to his campaign which he turned over to his committee.

Francis H. Bohlen, who ran against Senator Grundy and Secretary Davis with the backing of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, testified that the total expended for the ticket which included himself and candidates for governor and lieutenant governor was a little more than $200,000. Of this amount $10,000 was contributed by the association.

SOME of the dry leaders in the senate were considerably more disturbed by the ruling of the Supreme court, that the ordinary purchaser of intoxicating liquor is not guilty of an offense, than was the prohibition enforcement bureau. Senator Sheppard of Texas, for instance, urged the early enactment of legislation to make the liquor buyer punishable under the dry laws. Sheppard was co-author of the Eighteenth amendment. Early in the present session he introduced a bill to make the seller and purchaser of illicit liquor equally liable to punishment. Senator Jones of Washington, author of the "five and ten law" and others opposed the views of Sheppard.

The court, in an important test case brought by the government, held that congress not only "deliberately and designedly" exempted purchasers in the "volstead act," but for ten years "has significantly left the law in its original form."

Enforcement bureau officials pointed out that the decision was entirely in accord with the policy the bureau had followed.

THREE bills intended to improve prohibition enforcement, principally through the relief of congested federal court dockets, were given the approval of the house judiciary committee. One measure would authorize the summary prosecution of offenders elsewhere defined as misdemeanors before United States commissioners without a jury. Whatever the action of the commissioner, it must be confirmed or disapproved by a member of the federal bench.

Another would amend the United States code to define a misdemeanor as an offense calling for a maximum penalty of six months in jail, a fine of $500, or both, and a felony as an offense punishable by imprisonment for not less than one year.

The third measure would amend the Jones law to define a misdemeanor as an offense committed by one who is not an habitual violator of the dry statutes and a case involving not more than one gallon of liquor.

OUT in Seattle a federal grand jury returned indictments against Roy C. Lyle, prohibition administrator for Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Alaska, and others on charges of corruption and bribery. Among the indicted are William M. Whittier, Mr. Lyle's assistant and legal advisor; Earl Corwin, a prohibition agent; M. L. Fryant, a deputy sheriff who won notoriety as a wire tapper in the famous Olmsted "whispering wires" case; and C. T. McKinney, a young lawyer from Kentucky who led the prosecution of the Olmsted liquor gang.

OFFICIALS of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition, and public morals were asked to appear before the senate lobby committee to explain its alleged failure to report, in accordance with the federal corrupt practices act, its activities in the presidential campaign of 1928.

Deets Pickett, research secretary of the board, testifying in the absence of Dr. Clarence True Wilson, its general secretary, insisted that its activities in behalf of Hoover were "non-political." He pointed out that the Department of Justice has declined to prosecute the board for noncompliance with the federal statute.

Pickett stated that hundreds of thousands of copies of the Voice and the Claspnet, organs of the board, were circulated during the 1928 campaign; that the religious issue received attention in the Voice, a fact he now deplored; and that, as reported to the board by Doctor Wilson after the campaign, "we did use all the energy that we were capable of in bringing about the election of Herbert Hoover as President and Charles Curtis as Vice President."

PICKETT no longer describes the resistance of the Indian natives to British rule. The rioting is increasing daily and has developed into bloody conflicts with the police and the troops. What is worse, in the eyes of the British, is the fact that the Moslems are joining their traditional enemies, the Hindus, in the campaign in some localities, though in other places there have been sanguinary fights between natives of the two religions.

Worst of all the rioting, but not directly connected with the Indian campaign, was that in Rangoon. In that capital city of Burma warfare broke out between different bands of coolies when laborers were imported to break a strike of dock workers and the troops were forced to fire on the mobs. Many were killed and the wounded numbered perhaps a thousand. Latest reports indicated that peace had not yet been restored there. Fifteen Indian coolie women were said to have been tortured and massacred by coolies. All the shops in the city were closed and the food situation was becoming desperate.

PREMIER Mussolini so fiery and provocative concerning the necessity of having Italy prepared for war that the negotiations between that country and France for a naval limitation agreement were broken off, and some of the French newspapers even hint at the possibility of war between France and Italy, though the conciliatory attitude of the French government is stressed.

On the other hand, Deputy Gray in a speech before the Italian chamber of deputies, appealed to France to make an accord with Italy so that Europe may present a united front against America in the future armed struggle which he is certain will come.

CHINESE Nationalist forces in Chinan province are reported to have been severely defeated by the troops of the northern alliance commanded by Yen Hsi-shan and Feng Yu-hsiang and numbering about 200,000 men. The government troops were forced to dig in and suspend their advance on Chengchow, the rebel base, until reinforcements arrive. The two armies have been engaged in battle along the railway south of the Yellow river since May 8.

ORGANIZED labor won a big victory when the Supreme Court of the United States upheld an injunction restraining the Texas and New Orleans railroad, a Southern Pacific system subsidiary, from organizing a so-called "company union" or interfering with the activities of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks among its employees.

DETERMINED to hold down government expenditures for veterans' relief to reasonable figures, President Hoover vetoed a bill broadening the basis for pensions for Spanish war veterans which would have added from $11,000,000 to $12,000,000 to annual costs to the government.

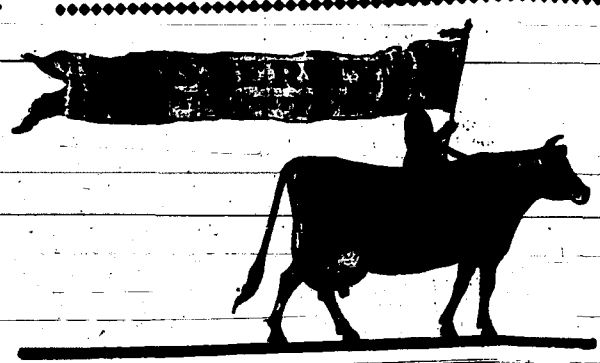

"I am in favor of properly discharging the national obligation to men who served in war or became disabled and are in need," said the President in his veto message. "But certain principles are included in this legislation which are opposed to the interest both of war veterans and of the public."

AGRICULTURAL NOTES

When the mosquitoes come around to torment us again, it may be well to have a copy of Farmers' Bulletin 1570-F, Mosquito Remedies and Preventives. This bulletin can be secured free from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Last year, 1,876,000 persons moved from farms to cities, and 1,287,000 moved from cities to farms, a movement away from farms of 619,000, according to U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics figures. The farm population is now the smallest in 30 years.

Pick mushrooms when they are "buttons"—that is, before the membrane or veil extending from the margin of the cap to the stem has broken. At this stage they command a better price than when larger. Mushrooms may be picked by twisting the base of the stem. Take care to press the soil over any holes made in picking.

Many dairymen believe that cows should always be milked regularly, but tests at the U. S. Bureau of Dairy Industry Experiment Farm at Beltsville, Md., show that average to good cows can be milked at irregular hours without any material effect on milk production. Apparently cows are more sensitive to changes in feeding routine than to variation in the hours of milking.

Although some "broilers" may be fat enough to market direct from the range, it is often profitable to fatten chickens for a week or two before marketing. Be careful not to over-feed the broilers when they are first put on the fattening ration. Gradually increase the quantity at each feeding until toward the latter part of the fattening period the birds are getting all they will eat. The U. S. Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO.

Thursday, June 6, 1907.

The lawn mowers are busy and the lawns are fine.

Shade trees are fast putting on their full livery of green, beautifying our village.

Postmaster Bates' usual smile is expanded by the fact of a $100 raise in his salary. Prosperity did it.

Nels P. Olson helped swell the crowd at the meeting of the Grand Lodge F. & A. M. at Bay City last week.

Mrs. Holger Schmidt and Mrs. R. Lamont spent Thursday and Friday last week at Lovell, enjoying the fishing.

Adelbert Taylor attended the session of the Grand Lodge F. & A. M. at Bay City last week as delegate from the local lodge and reports a large attendance and pleasant time.

Mrs. Louis B. Niles closed a seven months school near Waters last week Wednesday.

N. Michelson was in Lansing last Friday and one of the few of the many thousands to meet the President.

Mrs. Charles Jerome was in Lansing last week to visit with George but of course took time to see the big crowd, and listen to the speeches of President Roosevelt.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Koster went to Marshall last Friday. They stay with her father over Sunday. He is quite feeble from the effects of a paralytic stroke.

John F. Hum with Mr. Haywood and a friend from the south measured the depth of the Ashtabula River at Black Bend. They say they rode and bait, and reached home near morning Wednesday. They claim it was wet.

P. L. Brown of Grayling, who has the contract of laying the foundation under the residence of E. A. Gaffney is doing a fine piece of work, which shows that he is a master mechanic. He is talking of placing a machine for the manufacture of cement blocks and we hope he will as it is a much needed industry. Resumes from News.

Bradley & Sprague have moved their market to the old P. C. building and present an inviting appearance to their customers.

A new engineer appeared at the home of R. A. McPeak, on the morning of Decoration Day and every body is happy. The congratulatory of their friends continue to pour in.

The cold and backward spring has had a tendency to discourage business men and farmers. Spring crops are backward, many of the farmers are yet having planted corn or potatoes reported better. The cattle have to be fed and sheltered about the same as in winter. Many farmers still have surplus hay and are now short of feed with hay at $18 to $22 a ton at retail. The ground is cold and crops already are in danger of either rotting in the ground or freezing if the plants have shown their heads above the ground. Business men, particularly in some lines, are disposed to grumble because people are still wearing their winter clothes and the weather holds back. However, the weather prophet says that after June 1st we can all take the flannels off the garden, which is meant to create the inference that we shall have warm weather after that date. There is no cause for gloomy forebodings by reason of weather conditions. We are promised a springtime and harvest, and it will surely come.

Roosevelt Meets Capt. Hartwick

Capt. Hartwick was in the great crowd which surrounded the president when he was in Lansing. The captain is an attendant to take his card to Mr. Roosevelt.

"It will be no good," the president said, "Lansy and he's going to talk to me from the platform so you can't see him."

"But will you not just have the card near morning Wednesday. They claim it was wet."

"Oh, well, I'll send it in, but he won't see you," replied the captain. "Send for Capt. Hartwick," those near the president said. The comrades of Capt. Hartwick will never forget Capt. Hartwick—Jackson Citizen Press.

Inside Information

Keep the refrigerator well filled with ice. When there is too small a piece the temperature of the entire box rises. This not only endangers the food kept in it but causes the next piece to melt more rapidly in chilling the box to a desirable degree.

By the "hot pack" in home canning is meant a method of filling the jars or cans, not a method of canning. If the food is put into the jars boiling hot, it reaches the temperature for processing more quickly in the canner and heat penetrates better to the center of the jar. The hot pack insures a product of better texture and appearance and shortens the time of canning.

Oven-dried toast is a delicious accompaniment to soups and salads, and is an easy way of disposing of stale bread. Any sort of pieces may be oven dried and delicately browned in a medium oven, but for passing as a special kind of bread, it is more attractive to trim the crusts off a stale loaf so the slices will be square, cut them very thin, and heat them until they are biscuit colored and slightly curled. The trimmings need not be wasted; roll them out for dried crumbs.

Have meals out-of-doors as often as you can during the summer-time. Keep in the house the "makings" of easy picnic meals, and be ready, on a tempting day, to change the meal program at very short notice. Sandwiches, fillings, bottled fruit drinks, cheese, and salad dressings are all easily kept in reserve in the pantry or refrigerator. Then with butter, bread, fresh fruit and perhaps tomatoes and lettuce, and eggs or any cooked meat you have on hand, it is a matter of a few minutes only to pick up the family and the supper and drive to a shady spot where the outlook and surroundings are pleasant. A picnic kit containing paper or enamel cups and plates, knives, forks, spoons, paper napkins, and waxed paper for wrapping sandwiches or foods, will enable you to get ready for a meal out-of-doors in a very brief time. Instead of taking sandwiches you may like to take a steak or some bacon with you to be cooked over a wood fire.

TEA BREWING AN ART UNMASTERS BY MANY

Brewing a social cup of tea is an art unknown to many housewives. While the amount of tea to use will depend on the individual's taste, C. E. Hutchinson, tea examiner stationed at New York City for the Federal Food and Drug Administration, says that about a teaspoonful to the cup is a good average. Boiling water must be used for the leaves will not open fully and the beverage will be weak and flavor to the beverage. But tea should never be boiled nor should the leaves stand in the water longer than five or six minutes, in his opinion.

An earthenware pot should be used, and after the leaves have steeped five or six minutes the liquor should be poured into another container, or if a tea ball is used it can be removed. Mr. Hutchinson puts the tea in an aluminum strainer, puts the strainer across the top of the teapot, and pours boiling water through the strainer until the pot is full, covering the body of the strainer. After it has drawn for three or four minutes he takes the strainer out and has a cup of tea that is just to his liking.

IF IT WERE POSSIBLE TO MAGNIFY A PASTURE

If it were possible to magnify a pasture several hundred or thousand fold and all the parasites in the same proportion—so that blades of grass would appear as tall bamboo and small forage plants as great trees, it would be easier to convince livestock growers of the desirability of careful attention to antiparasitic and the importance of constant watchfulness in combating the ravages of parasites that live in the pasture and attack the various kinds of livestock.

Such a magnified pasture would reveal as a place of life and death. Many of the livestock parasites are tenacious of life and are able to withstand the most unfavorable conditions. Yet the great proportion of them die without ever having the opportunity to attack an animal. However, many of these parasites have powers of reproduction and multiplication that seem marvelous. Thousands of immature forms will come from a single adult parasite. Many live through complicated life cycles and many have one or more intermediate hosts on which they live between their attacks on horses, cattle, sheep, or swine.

Unlike the jungle hunters, many of the pests in this magnified pasture would be sluggish and inert—barely alive, perhaps. The stomach worm, for example, from the ground and finds a resting place in a tiny curl in a blade of grass. There it remains while the grass develops. If no sheep bites off the grass the stomach worm in time dies. If a sheep crops the grass, the stomach worm enters the stomach, joins with other stomach worms, and preys on the sheep, which is likely to become unthrifty and unprofitable.

Fortunately for the livestock growers, most of these parasites are able to live and reproduce only when they are able to attack domestic animals of the same or closely related species. The danger from parasite-infested pastures is by no means so great if it is possible to use this year's horse pasture for cattle or sheep next year and for hogs the third.

ANNEXATION CAUSES TROUBLE FOR MARINE OFFICER

The annexation by the United States of the Hawaiian Islands brought unexpected inconvenience to a Marine officer. A regulation of the Navy required an officer to secure the permission of the Secretary of the Navy if he desired to leave the United States for a foreign country.

An officer of the U. S. Marines, secured such permission to visit the Hawaiian Islands while it was an independent sovereign state. After arrival at the Islands, the States and Stripes went up in 1898 and the Hawaiian Islands became territory of the United States.

PATIENCE IN UPBUILDING ONE OF NECESSARY ELEMENTS OF THRIFT

(By S. W. STRAUS, President American Society for Thrift.)

One of the lessons which we all must learn, if we are to make progress, is the great value of patience. It is one of the essentials of thrift.

We must learn that we cannot always accomplish our purposes, no matter how laudable they may be, as quickly as we might desire. In the process of building up our personal resources we should never lose sight of the fact that safe investment and spectacular profits seldom go hand in hand. Placing our funds where we know they are safe even though the return may be considered small is far better than risking their loss in order to gain exorbitant profits.

In all matters of personal advancement we will do better in the long run if we exercise patience. Many a promising career has been ruined because of efforts to rise too rapidly. It is the old story of the house built on sand.

This is an age when the constant trend is toward speed in everything. We all want to get to the top quickly; we all want to get rich overnight; we all want to compress a week's accomplishment into a day's time. This is the spirit of the age and it is not to be condemned because it explains the tremendous strides now being made in every field of endeavor. However, it places the individual in a position of straggle and constant temptation. It is increasing difficulty to be patient and pursue sound and cautious policies of personal advancement when stories are being told all about us of the meteoric advancement of others. The point often lost sight of is that every much made of spectacular success but we seldom hear of the failures.

Notwithstanding the spirit of the age, patience has a high place in the scheme of success and advancement. Sound policies will always accomplish more in the long run than spectacular ones. The man who arrives at his goal through patient effort can rest assured that his success is of the substantial type which will last.

Those who may feel that their progress is not as rapid as it should be, may be assured that, while their upward building financially and otherwise may seem to be of slow growth, they will in the long run lose nothing by a continued exercise of patience.

SEVEN MILLIONTH CHEVROLET GOES ON ITS WAY

The seven millionth car built by the Chevrolet Motor Company is on its way to its owner somewhere in America. The epochal car, which happened to be a coach, rolled off the assembly line Wednesday morning, May 28, in the company's huge plant at Flint, Mich. The car was produced by Chevrolet since this model was brought out in January 1929.

Chevrolet's record-making arrival without benefit of ceremony along the final assembly line, who welcomed and watched it being driven to the loading docks for shipment. Then work was resumed and not many seconds later Car No. 7,000,001 went to join its historic companion.

Various dates in the life of the Chevrolet Motor Company on which the millionth car marks have been passed furnish a graphic picture of the rapid strides made by the company to its position of 6-cylinder leadership in the industry.

Nearly 12 years elapsed after the company's organization before the one millionth car was built, on Feb. 27, 1923, but the second millionth car rolled off the assembly line less than two years and five months later, on July 20, 1925. A year and six months later, on Jan. 13, 1927, the three millionth car was produced. Thereafter less than a year was required to reach each of the succeeding million marks. The four millionth was produced, on Jan. 11, 1928, in 363 days; the five millionth, on Sept. 8, 1928, in eight months, three days; the sixth millionth on June 25, 1929, in 9 months, 17 days. The seven millionth mark, just passed, was reached in 10 months, 25 days.

Commenting on the production of the seven millionth Chevrolet, W. S. Knudson, president and general manager of the company, declared that building a million 6-cylinder cars in less than a year is an outstanding indication of the enthusiasm with which the public has received a 6-cylinder car in the lowest price field. This class, he explained, offers to buyers to a greater extent than ever before the quality and performance formerly available only in cars of higher price.

OAKLAND CLIMBS 150 MOUNTAIN ROAD IN GEAR

Conquers Famed Johnson Embury Grades of Cali

Probably the steepest stretch of mountain road in the United States, the route between Angeles and Big Bear La includes the famed Cushman Johnson Grades, recently conquered in high gear by an Eight Sedan in less than 10 minutes. Zig-zag switchbacks and heavy pulls reaching a grade of 18 per cent offer a test of high gear pulling power.

The most difficult part of the route is from Victorville to Big Bear, a distance of 47 miles. The grade in elevation is 4,150 feet. Nine miles out of Victorville countered the start of the Cus Johnson Grade. Drainage ditches across the route prevented a speed of more than 18 miles per hour on the first miles of the grade but the 10-mile and one-half of switchbacks negotiated at an average speed of 33 miles per hour.

Next the Oakland mounts Johnson grade at 25 miles per hour. The 10.5-mile distance between the bottom of the Cushman Johnson Grade and the summit of the Johnson was covered in 20 minutes. Observers who accompanied Oakland asserted that few, if any, stock cars ever had the route without changing gears.

WARNS CAMPERS ON DISPOSE OF GARBAGE

A warning to summer campers concerning the state law relative to pollution of lakes and streams issued today by the Pollution Division of the Department of Conservation. State law forbids the dumping any garbage or refuse in any waters; requires that it must be buried in the ground at least ten feet away from the water line; and provides for a penalty for its violation.

With hundreds of thousands of campers throughout the state each summer, it is obviously impossible to inspect all camp sites. It was so much of the responsibility of keeping Michigan's lakes and streams clean must rest with the camper himself.

It is conservatively estimated that one pound of garbage and refuse dumped per day per person. Last year 138,308 people camped at 11 state parks alone. Had these been permitted to dump garbage in river and streams it would have meant pollution at the rate of approximately 20 tons a day. It was said. All these campers represent but a small proportion of those who camp in Michigan.

While most of the attention of the Pollution Division, and the results obtained, have been with municipalities, by campers is not inconceivable, and it generally occurs on lakes and streams where it is the only form of pollution.

"KONJOLA SAVED MY LIFE," SAYS DETROIT LADY

Nervousness. And Constipation Of Years—Standing Yell To New Medicine—Four Bottles Bring Health

MRS. MARGARET HAYNES

"Konjola saved my life," said Mrs. Margaret Haynes, 2724 Fourth street, Detroit. "I was a nervous wreck, so nervous that I could not bear to be in the company of my own family. I frequently left the table at mealtime in order to be away from everyone and everything. I was unable to eat and became terribly run down and was losing weight rapidly. No matter what I tried nothing relieved me until I took Konjola."

"Before I took this medicine I was terribly constipated. I was listless, sleepy and unable to do my work properly. This had been going on over a period of fifteen years. I have taken four bottles of Konjola and today my nerves are in much better shape. I have an excellent appetite and am free from the misery of constipation. I cannot say enough in praise of Konjola and I have all my friends taking it."

When given a real trial over a period of from six to eight weeks, Konjola has made a record that would often challenge belief were the actual fact not known and verified. Konjola is sold in Grayling, Mich., at the Mac & Gidley Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

GETTING MEN'S WAGES

Wife—You are getting men's wages every day now.
Hubby—Yes; they only have to take positions as wives for that.

Mr. Peterson wants me to mention the fact, too, that graduation diamonds are quite the thing. If you love diamonds, you should see the assortment they have here at the store.

52 More Planes for Navy
The Mothers Return
Mr. Ford's Recipe
5-Billion Dollar Infant

Navy contracts for 52 fighting planes, torpedo and bombing aircraft have been announced. They will cost, for the 52 ships, $3,000,177.

For the price of one modern battleship, with coalers and other equipment, the navy could buy 1,040 such fighting planes. Altogether they would require crews smaller than one battleship crew and would cost far less in upkeep than one battleship.

And one such bombing plane could sink any battleship or other ship at sea.

This nation needs at the least an air fleet of 5,000 fighting planes, with an adequate fleet under water.

Peshawar is a long way from Buckingham palace, and once it would have been painful, slow work subduing natives in those far off corners.

But now the thing of exploring Royal Air Force bombs is heard in the hiding places of Hadji and his Mohammedan tribesmen, rebelling against Britain. And Hadji's forces are melting away.

Alah and his prophet are great, but they offer no weapon to fight flying machines.

The first party of 127 Gold Star Mothers, having seen the graves of their dead sons, are on their way home.

They were not early for the poppies, about which pretty war poems were written, but they saw the white crosses, now all too many marking the grave of a dead American soldier.

President Hoover and the Navy department are to be congratulated on the decision to allow our submarine fleet to take part in the Arctic expedition of exploration in the Arctic.

Eventually our fleet of submarines will be made useful in peace through exploration of the oceans, seas, lakes and land under them.

Engineers and surveyors will map out the mountains and valleys lying under the oceans.

And the future will see submarine prospectors, searching for mines and oil wells, below the water, competing with modern prospectors now searching for treasure and oil for nations by airplanes.

Henry Ford says people must keep up their spirits. American farmers must develop mass production as American factories do, wages must not be cut, and everybody must be cheerful.

Sound advice for everybody except the man out of a job, and the farmer, who doesn't know how to get mass production out of 50 acres.

Mr. Ford lets the workmen still while their work passes of them. The farmer's work passes in front of him.

But Henry Ford is a genius and may find a way.

Wall Street believes that J. P. Morgan, most powerful figure in American finance, is perfecting an enterprise that will make his late father's big steel company look like a modest investment.

The new enterprise, called in Wall Street slang "United Corp.", plans a five-billion-dollar corporation to include practically everything in the way of public utilities in the North Atlantic region.

Steam power, water power, gas, and the great distributing agencies would all be under one hat.

Mr. Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern railway, with his son and some first-class railroad engineers, has sailed for Europe, to be met by representatives of the Soviet commissar of railways at the Russian frontier. Mr. Budd will devote a year to planning reorganization of Russian railways on American lines.

This shows that Russia knows something about business, whatever you may think of her politics and social theories.

Not including real estate, the late Rodman Wanamaker left $99,000,000, according to his executors. More interesting than the size of his fortune is the fact that he worked hard, almost to the day of his death, at his own business, and at promotion of aviation, in which he was a pioneer, and other work important to the public.

It is what a man does, not what he has, that counts.

Encouraging news from London says "business girls" are fighting long skirts. The short skirt represents common sense, comfort, health, and does not drag in germs.

Scientists of Lowell observatory are said to have selected the name "Pluto" for the new planet. They should make another selection.

An American, Professor Lowell, predicted the discovery of the planet; another American discovered it. It is, therefore, an American planet and should have been named for Newton, whose law made the discovery possible, or for Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, Hoover or Theodore Roosevelt.

NEWS & COMMENTS FROM WASHINGTON

(By Congressman Roy O. Woodruff, Tenth Michigan District.)

Dispersing the mystery which once shrouded the tomb in Arlington Cemetery of Mrs. Mary Randolph, the War Department has erected on the ivy-covered brick wall enclosing the tomb an informative bronze tablet, inscribed with a brief biography of this remarkable woman.

Data for the inscription was obtained as a result of an article in the Washington Star some months ago by Enoch A. Chase, calling attention to the uncertainty surrounding the history of Mary Randolph. The tablet points out that Mrs. Randolph, the first person to be buried at Arlington, was a direct descendant of Pocahontas, a cousin of Thomas Jefferson, of Pittsburgh Curtis and Robert E. Lee and a sister-in-law of Gov. Thomas Mann Randolph of Virginia.

The tablet also seeks to explain the quaint epithet, long a subject of comment, which follows:

"Sacred to the memory of Mrs. Mary Randolph—her intrinsic worth needs no eulogium. The deceased was born the 24th of August, 1782, at Appomattox near Richmond, Virginia, and died the 23rd of January, 1828 in Washington City a victim of maternal love and duty. As a tribute of filial affection this monument is dedicated to her exalted virtues by her youngest son. Requiescat in pace."

Commodities of every Senator and Representative all Government automobiles and trucks and thousands of other motor-vehicles all over the country will carry this summer a large display announcement of the George Washington Bicentennial, according to plans just completed by Representative Sol Bloom of New York.

Mr. Bloom, with Lieut. Col. U. S. Grant, 3d, an associate director of the series of bicentennial celebrations which are to center in Washington and to extend all over the land during 10 months in 1932, on the occasion of the 200th anniversary of Washington's birth.

Plans for a 100-ton, 100-mile-an-hour metal-clad airship to cost $4,500,000 have been laid before the House Military Affairs Committee by Carl B. Fritzsche, Vice President of the Hottel Aircraft Corporation.

Appearing in support of the Kahr Bill to authorize construction of such a ship for the Army transport purposes, he said engineers believe it would be practical. Such a craft, he added, would be able to carry a military load of 10,000 pounds in a Washington to Panama in 12 hours without a stop. The proposed ship would be 100 feet long, 25 feet wide, 25 feet high and 25 miles an hour.

Mr. Fritzsche placed the cost of two such airships at $8,000,000 and said the first would be completed in 33 months and the second in 42 months.

Radio's "astounding" growth as a medium of public entertainment and enlightenment is reflected in an industrial survey just completed which shows that the listening audience alone approximates nearly one-half the population of the United States, and that 40 per cent of the families have radio receiving sets.

Radio Commissioner Harold A. LaFount declared orally May 24. Citing a revised survey of radio broadcasting prepared by Dr. Daniel Starch of Cambridge, Mass., Mr. LaFount said it shows that radio, in the brief span of a decade "has vaulted into the forefront of America's everyday life."

It reflects also, he declared, the "ever-growing task of the Federal Radio Commission in regulating radio to protect the public interest."

"Prevention of unemployment is a distinctly national obligation," said Senator Wagner (Dem.) of New York, in a radio address May 24, in which he urged the passage by the House and enactment into law of three unemployment bills, introduced by him, that have been passed by the Senate.

"These bills can become law in time to prepare the country against next winter's hardships," he contended. "Should the House be denied the opportunity to act on this legislation at the present session, the country will know exactly where to place the responsibility for our lack of economic preparedness when next we undergo another severe attack of unemployment."

President Hoover this week signed a bill appropriating $750,000 for the establishment of a national health institute in Washington, under the supervision of the U. S. Public Health Service. Senator Randall of Louisiana, author of the bill, witnessed the signing and received the gold pen the President used.

The Senate on May 27 unanimously passed the House Bill H. R. 9804 amending the World War adjusted compensation act by extending the time in which applications may be filed. The bill was approved on the motion of Senator Smoot of Utah, Finance Committee Chairman, at the same time the Senate unanimously passed a House Resolution authorizing the immediate appropriation of certain amounts for the settlement of war claims.

The following data regarding the recent examinations for entrance to the Naval Academy is forwarded by the Navy Recruiting Station, Detroit. One hundred and forty-four men from enlisted ranks took the examination. 61 or 63.20% passing. Civilian appointees who took the test totaled 184, and 152 or 22.22% passed. There were 48 appointees from the naval reserve, of whom 16 or 31.25% were found qualified. Forty-two young men who received appointments from President Hoover are included in the list of those who passed.

The Log Office Says

Interesting bits of news and comment about Northeastern Michigan gathered by the E. M. T. A.

If You're Across the Street Looking On—

Of course we know, since we're on the inside looking out, what loads of booklets, folders, and answers to questions are being sent out concerning East Michigan to the whole U. S. from the Log Office. But, John Duchaine is across the street from us. And he remarks, that if you want to know what the E. M. T. A. is doing, come and sit in his restaurant window for a day. "Aye," business, man in this district ought to be proud to be a member of such an organization that's doing so much to advertise East Michigan," says Mr. Duchaine.

New York Schools Study E. M. T. A. Publications

This thing of supplying schools with E. M. T. A. publications for the study of Michigan is an interesting problem. Michigan teachers and principals write us complimenting our booklets. And now New York schools are asking us for maps and information about our Vacationland. It would be fine, constructive advertising, if we had adequate funds with which to publish enough to meet all such demands.

Tri-County Meet To Be Annual Affair

The all-day outdoor meet of the Tri-County Sportsmen's Club is to be an annual affair, according to H. N. Butler of East Tawas, who attended the recent committee meeting on final arrangements for the Michigan shingling of June 13. From a mere evening dinner meeting of sportsmen on their way to the opening of the "trout" season, it has grown into a 24-hour holiday-in-the-open that interests all East Michigan. June 13 in Michigan should play the theme song: "Have Promises to be a history-maker."

You Can't Beat the Irish!

Shades of Killarney, Dublin and the Blarney Stone! When the Irish put out tourist booklets they give you such detailed information that you can plan the expense of every day of your trip through the Emerald Isle. We have on our desk four new bits of tourist literature: "Killarney," "See Ireland First," "Dublin, Ireland's Capital," and "Hotels, Restaurants and Garages in the Irish Free State." And after you've looked through their charming pages you not only know where to go for angling, shooting, riding to hounds, and Irish scenery, but how much your garage, tea, dinner, lodging, breakfast and luncheon will cost you in every hotel on any route. You even know the difference in price of a hot lunch and a cold one. Wonder if we couldn't learn a bit from the Irish Tourist Association?

National Advertising Becomes International

Our national advertising brings them in from every state. But when it becomes international—that is a bit more than we expected. This week arrived an inquiry about Michigan travel from an Englishman whose country estate is in Middlesex, England. He is coming to America for the first time this summer. A request for information on Michigan resorts just came in from Disconsanmartin, Romania. And Mr. W. Wong, of Singapore, added his name to the inquiry list a few days ago. That's just a glimpse of the possibilities of this thing—but we're not financially prepared to snatch up the opportunity as we should. (Here soft music should play the theme song: "Have You Paid Your Membership?")

On January 1st of this year, the Chevrolet Motor Company announced a new service policy—the most liberal ever offered in connection with a low-priced automobile.

Immediately it was greeted with enthusiasm by Chevrolet buyers everywhere—because its many unusual features materially add to the economy and lasting satisfaction of Chevrolet ownership. Briefly, it provides——for free inspection and adjustment at the 500-mile mark, and free inspections every 1000 miles thereafter.

—for free replacement of any material—including both parts and labor—that may prove defective, within the terms of the standard warranty.—that this replacement will be carried out by any Chevrolet dealer in the United States—regardless of where the owner may have traveled during the warranty period.

Backing this policy is one of the largest service organizations in the automotive industry—consisting of over 10,000 authorized Chevrolet dealer service stations in the United States alone. Come in! Learn all the other reasons why it's wise to choose a Chevrolet Six!

ON WAY TO RUSSIA

sure looked pretty about 1/2 a mile away from us. This was her 3rd trip to the States.

We are getting pretty close to the coast of Ireland now. Sure have good beer, wine, and whiskey on here. Just anything you can imagine. It's just a good sized hotel by itself. The crew sure has been awful good to us. They say it's the best bunch they have ever had. We had some pictures made and will send you a couple that were made on ship.

Well my dears, I'll close, and write you again before I get there, so be good. Lots of love.

Dear Folks at Home:

Guess I had better get busy and write a few lines. This is our last day at sea, we will pull in harbor at Leningrad at 8 a. m. tomorrow.

We left London Saturday afternoon. Had a good trip across the North Sea, got to the mouth of the Kiel canal at 1 a. m. Monday. This is a canal that Germany cut thru about 50 miles from the North Sea to the Baltic Sea, about like the Panama canal, it has two locks like those at the Panama.

We stopped at the mouth of the canal in Germany and took on beer, whiskey, cigarettes and cigars. We bought Camel cigarettes at $1.25 a carton, as cheap as in the States and the same kind of cigars, seventy-five cents for a box of 25; old Scotch whiskey at $1.25 a quart, beer 17c a quart bottle and wine at 68c a quart.

Germany is sure a pretty place, nice buildings and nice farms and everything is kept up in good shape. We came out of the canal at 10 o'clock that morning and headed into the Baltic Sea. The first day was pretty calm but the following day it was rough and all the women and half the men were seasick. Yesterday we passed Sweden, we were right close to some of the islands and now we are about six or eight miles from the shore of Finland. Will see Russia sometime this afternoon. Will be glad when we get to Leningrad, I'm getting tired of the water. Three or four days on the train, then its over unless we stop in Leningrad and Moscow.

Hope we can go right through and get to work for I am tired of loafing. I sleep six or eight hours at night, get up for breakfast, rest an hour or two, sleep till noon, rest another hour or two and sleep until supper time. It has been awfully cold, just like October. Have had to wear an overcoat most of the time since we left Southampton and have only seen the sun for a couple of hours until yesterday afternoon. Today is nice and clear but our overcoat feels good when out on deck.

I was up in the Captain's cabin for a couple of hours yesterday. Everything is controlled by electricity even to steering. I think when I come back I'll travel by train to London because there won't be any kick now to go by boat and I want to see more of the country. I'm getting so drowsy I can hardly get my clothes on. They sure feed good and I do like to eat. I will have to quit now and write the boys. Love to all.

BARNETT BROS. BIG 3 RING
MOTORIZED CIRCUS.
Thousands of children, their fathers, and mothers, their aunts and uncles, and their grandfathers and grandmothers will be all ready to see everything when Barnett Bros. Circus comes to Grayling on Saturday, June 28.
The big parade at noon, the flying human-butterflies, the unrivaled bare-back riders, the unparalleled display of gymnastics, acrobatic and equestrian stunts, the thrilling and exciting north-provoking clowns, the thrilling races, that is all promised for that day. That is all promised for that day. The grand free street-parade a mile in length will pass over the principal streets at noon and for sumptuous beauty promises to out rival all efforts of former years. There will be red lemonade, and peanuts and all the rest that goes to make up a real circus day. The Barnett Bros. Circus is a clean show. There are no short change artists with this show; they expect to put 'his town on their regular route, and want to be able to meet the people face to face.
Now we know why the United States has no poet laureate. The Senate could never agree on confirming any nomination by the President.
